

Beautiful Savior God

Song Devotional Summary

By Stephen Robert Cass

To be baptized into the life of Christ Jesus is to also be baptized into His death.

We are now dedicated to righteousness.

Paul tells us in Romans chapter 6 that when we say yes to God, we are saying yes to a life devoted to the pursuit of holiness as opposed to a life dominated by missing the mark of God's design for us.

One way to think about it is to realize just how much our days and plans are mastered by the thoughts of how we fall short—I'm not good enough, so why bother? And the downward spiral continues ...

But now that we are in Christ Jesus, we are dead to sin, but alive in Christ! We don't have to be good enough. That old self is buried with Him. Christ is raised from the dead and we celebrate our new lives with Him.

Rather than being dominated by sin and missing the mark, we are dedicated to finding how to fill our days seeking the ways of righteousness. We offer every part of ourselves to Him as an instrument of His righteousness.

It's not simply "arriving" and earning the badge of being a follower of Christ, but the continual pursuit of learning to be holy.

How can you be an instrument of His righteousness? By learning how you can be the hands and feet of Jesus in feeding the hungry, clothing the poor, visiting the sick and lonely and seeking fair justice.

Enjoy my song, Beautiful Savior God.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, how great is Your name. May Your kingdom come to earth. Please show me how I can serve You and learn to seek out your will for my life. Holy Son, I believe on You and place my cares with You so I can flourish in my new life with You. Thank you for carrying me. Thank you for our victory over sin and death so I can live my life to the full.