

Faithful Compassionate God

Song Devotional Summary

By Stephen Robert Cass

God gives us a clear summary: the power of His love is a never-ending supply, and we can look to renew our strength in Him every day.

In the book of Lamentations, writings supplied to us hundreds of years before Christ, gives us a glimpse of this concept of God's constant supply of love and our daily renewal in chapter 3, verses 22 and 23.

Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.

*They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.*

We are a part of God because we are an expression of his creation. We are created in God's image of a burning bush that never consumes but continually expresses life.

God constantly exudes His great love for you and for me. His compassions never fail because they cannot be extinguished.

Because of this, when I fail, I can count on his mercy to be fresh with me every day. I can be recharged thanks to His promise of constant love. I might fail, but his love never fails.

His faithfulness is told to me from the beginning and is retold to me and refined through the New Covenant with Jesus.

The tides ebb and flow is never ending. The waves crash my shore and evil tempts me. But Jesus delights in daily mercy.
