

Tell the Mountain to Move

Song Devotional Summary

By Stephen Robert Cass

Let Go of Fear and Draw the Line.

Jesus has great encouragement for me. He tells us more than once to have the faith of a child, the dependence that a child has on their parent.

He wants me to understand that I will win in this life when I tune in to hope and joy because when I see His goodness and invite His ways to be my ways, my efforts will be magnified.

Matthew 13:

³¹ He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. ³² Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches."

He tells me that the smallest seed of hope can become a large tree. He encourages me to find who I am in Him so I can accomplish great things, excellent things for me and my wife and the people of my community.

I believe that I was made in the image and likeness of God, and that He has great things in store for me. I am special. Psalm 139 says:

*¹³For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.*

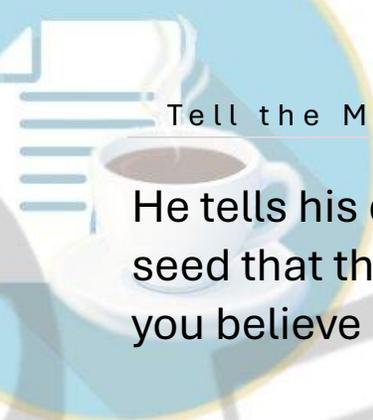

*¹⁴I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,
I know that full well.*

I want to align myself with God and continually reach out to understand my connection with Him.

He loves and cares for me. He wants me to call on His name for help.

Matthew 17:

²⁰He replied, "Because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

He tells his disciples that if they have faith the size of a mustard seed that they can command a mountain to move to the sea. Do you believe He is also telling you this?

Let go of fear and draw the line.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, how great is Your name. May Your kingdom come to earth. Lord Jesus, help me to understand this power to move a mountain. Thank you for the victory over sin and death so I can live my life to the full.
